What stories do you think about whilst looking at art? And whose voice is speaking?

This is a book of new fiction written in response to contemporary visual art set alongside manuscripts and images of work by the artists who inspired it. It is an exploration of relationships between visual and written fictions, full of tangents and digressions, and of biographies imagined, embroidered and real. This book celebrates consonances between art writing and practice, and the pleasures of the fallible.
It took its title from the notion of Papal Infallibility – the idea that the voice of God on Earth cannot be wrong, which was decreed as a doctrine during the First Vatican Council (1870–1917). It deployed and investigated the narratives of authority and belief through fiction, ventriloquism and disguise, embracing realist painting and the comic excesses of fancy dress. Item details. PLUÂ This exhibition was an artist-led project bringing together the work of established artists, writers and recent graduates in real and virtual space. It took its title from the notion of Papal Infallibility – the idea that the voice of God on Earth cannot be wrong, which was decreed as a doctrine during the First Vatican Council (1870–1917). Infallible - In search of the real George Eliot. Output Type: Exhibition. Venue: Hatton Gallery, Newcastle; APT, London; Mead Gallery, Warwick Art Centre. Dates: 17.01.-12.03.2005. Number of Works: 5. exhibition publicity material; photographic record; and "Infallible- in search of the real George Eliot" book, edited by Walsh, R. ; ARTicle Press, ISBN 1-873352-83-2. Lakes (no.5). Lakes (no.5). More Research. Brigitte Jurack. Information for Current Students. Manchester School of Art. George Eliot was an English poet and novelist. Check out this biography to know about her childhood, family life, achievements and other facts related to her life. Eliot has been placed by literary critic Harold Bloom as one of the greatest writers of the West. Her books have also been adapted into various films and television programs. Recommended Lists: Recommended Lists: British Women. Women Poets. Scorpio Poets.