<td>Description: Book has general wear. Few pages are slightly dirty. This book is meant to delight the eye. It is intended as most culinary sauces do, to tickle the palate. The dictionary describes sauce as a thing mixed, a tinge, a tincture, a touch, a dash, a sprinkling, a seasoning, a soupcon, a smack, and within these pages I have tried to provide all of these by word and picture, but mostly you will find by picture. It is a scrapbook of popular postcard and magazine art of days gone by and so many of the pictures require no explanation, all they need is to be looked ay. I do hope you find most of them worth it.</td>

Unless of course they could roll around laughing at it, which in the magnum opus of the Burmese policeman they sinularly fail to do. <td>Description: In the summer of 1980, 139 years on, with all Europe in political disarray, war raging in Afghanistan presidency in disorder, a group of madmen and layabouts continued to meet in London boozers in order to conclude that nothing could be done about the grievous world situation. Except go on producing the only magazine which offered a sensible alternative to worrying about it, that alternative being laughing yourself into a state of unicorn.
