<td>Dust Jacket is ripped. Pen markings from previous owner to fep. This book is neither a social history nor a manual on etiquette. It is an endeavour to depict certain patterns of behaviour which at different dates and in different places, have been evolved by minorities as representing the culture of their time. The varying types of civility produced during the last two thousand years reflected, not material conditions only, but also what was regarded as most admirable by contemporary thinkers and idealists. Every society invents for itself a type, a model, an examplar, of what the perfect member of that society ought to be.</td>

<td>Slight foxing to first fep. ex lib with the usual stamps and markings. A few days after my birth in the year 1833, I was taken to the house of Barbara Petrovna, mother of the writer, Ivan Sergeyevitch Turgenev. By her wish and with the consent of my parents, i was to be educated by her, or rather to be brought up as her adopted daughter. As will be seen in my reminiscences of the Turgenev Family, I remained with Barbara Petrovna till the day of her death, which took place on 16th of november, 1850 in Moscow, at Ostozhenka, in the Lochakovskoye house opposite the commercial school. There were two of us at her death bed, Nicholas Sergeyevich, her elder son and i.</td>

Description: Edge wear to corners of book. Fep has brown staining. Rough cut end pages. ex lib with the usual stamps and markings. There are few stiller things than the stillness of a summers noon such a this, a summers noon in a broken woodland with the deer asleep in the braken, and the twitter of birds silent in the coppice, and hardly a leaf astir in the huge beeches that fling their cool shade over the grass.Afar off a gilded vane flares out above the grey Jacobean Gables of Knoll. the chime of a village clock falls faintly on the ear, but there is no voice or footfall of living thing to break the silence as i turn over leaf after leaf of the book i have brought with me from the bustle of town to this still retreat, a book that is the record of a broken life, broken off, as he who lived it says of another, with a ragged edge. It is a book that carries one far from the woodland stillness around into the din and turmoil of cities.

I was born in the year 1632, in the city of York, of a good family, though not of that country, my father being a foreigner, of Bremen, who settled at Hull. he got a good estate by merchandise, and leaving off his trade, lived afterward at York from whence he had married my mother whose relations were named Robinson, a very good family in that country,and after whom i was called Robinson Kreutznaer but by the usual corruption of words in England, we are now called, nay we call ourselves and write our name Crusoe, and so my companions always called me.

Description: It happened in 1914 is the first part of the Olaf Tetralogy. A book that can be appreciated on several levels, as a human document, it is a deeply penetrating account of a boys transition from childhood to adolescence, but more particularly, it is the story of a gifted but under privileged youth preparing to break out of the bleak enviroment of an Arctic province. As such it is a vivid recreation of a process that the Author himself, like so many other proletarian writers throughout Europe,underwent earlier this century, and the hero can be seen as representative of the major social convulsions of our time. £3.50 postage and packing.

First of all, I have striven for redableness. It was the mans life that I was writing and not a critical study of his work, therefore his plays and novels are considered only in relation to his career, such critical attention has been included being there only to realize and clarify the mind of Dumas and its divagations.

Embroided Boards have edge wear. Previous owners name to first fep. Tissue guard has brown staining. The Talisman. A Tale of the Crusaders and the Chronicles of the Canongate. £3.00 postage and packing.

Pen markings to first fep. Foxing to pages and end pages. The biographt of shakespeare, which i originally published seventeen years ago, is here re-issued in a new shape. The whole has been drastically revised and greatly enlarged. Recent Shakespearean research has proved unexpectedly fruitful. My endeavour has been to present in a just perspective all the trustworthy and relevant information about Shakespears life and work which has become available up to the present time.

Spine is damaged Edge wear to boards and corners of book. Hinge is loose where it joins the front boards. Foxing to fep. Some pages are loose. Browning to pages.

Lord Byron, in full George Gordon Byron, 6th Baron Byron, (born January 22, 1788, London, England—died April 19, 1824, Missolonghi, Greece), British Romantic poet and satirist whose poetry and personality captured the imagination of Europe. George Gordon Byron was born in 1788, the son of British Capt. John ("Mad Jack") Byron and Catherine Gordon, a Scottish heiress. After John squandered most of her fortune, she and her son lived on a meagre income in Scotland. View Byron Research Papers on Academia.edu for free. The most unusual part of Byron's European travels in 1809–10 was probably his visit to Albania, where he roughed it for a bit and then lived and travelled luxuriously as the guest of Ali Pasha. He wrote about his Albanian travels in his more.
